At his place. (Was it a party?) Yeah. There was a gathering there, it was coming on Christmas, I guess, because it was in November when we got the horse, I know that, in the fall of the year. I had to go and get him shod • go out in the woods with him. I was over there one night and, I guess my father was with me, or whoever, sitting around there singing and all this. And he'd start singing this song. I was wondering to myself. Now, what in the hell is...? I knew he made up songs. And he had a lot on it first, before it got into going shoeing him at all. And I was wondering to myself • and as a kid, then, you'd get so violent, and then you could SAF-WAY AUTO PARTS LIMITED AUTOMOTIVE - INDUSTRIAL! Natural Resources kill him, or I could anyway. Here the song was for me I... {Laughing,} About ready to kill him that night, boy. (So you'd be embarrassed.) Oh, gee, he'd laugh, then you wouldn't believe the kick he'd get out of it. Oh, he made a lot of them. There's three or four he made. There was another fellow, Angus MacIntyre • he set up a mill in Clark's Road one time. He had a sawmill, fairly good sawmill. And he sat it out in the woods at MacCuish's old farm. There was no power, no nothing out there, see • the power was going to Main-a-Dieu. And (people) were still living out back, the best part of a mile in the woods. They had a nice farm there. But they couldn't get the power. So in order to get the power • he got after them, too • Angus did • Angus was married to their daughter, see. In order to get the power, if he'd get electric power for the mill, (then) they'd run the line in. And then they'd (also) get power in the house. They could wire the house. But they had to have more than (the) one house at that distance. So he did.
